

Life Still Matters ...

...YOU matter

AN INVITATION TO ATTEND A 3 DAY WORKSHOP FOR OVER 35s

to explore how meaning in life can deepen and grow, with fresh energy as experience and wisdom accumulate.

Purpose is not static. We all have a contribution to make to the world around us.

This three day residential Workshop will be held in beautiful Port Elliot, South Australia, overlooking historic Encounter Bay. The programme will have space for our own encounters – with the sea, silence and sharing – encounters that can reveal new hope and direction.

We will look at issues of identity, purpose, relationships and change-making, through panel presentations, small group sharing, times for silent reflection and workshops, while living together for three days.

'My destination is no longer a place, rather a new way of seeing.' - Marcel Proust
